Plaintiff,

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

- against -

ROBERT ALLEN ZIMMERMAN a/k/a BOB DYLAN,

Defendant.

Child Victims Act
Proceeding
22 NYCRR 202.72

Plaintiff, by her attorneys, The Law Offices of Daniel W. Isaacs, PLLC and Peter J. Gleason, P.C., as and for a Verified Complaint, respectfully sets forth and alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. As set forth below the defendant, Robert Allen Zimmerman a/k/a Bob Dylan ("Dylan"), over a six-week period between April and May of 1965 befriended and established an emotional connection with the plaintiff, J.C., to lower her inhibitions with the object of sexually abusing her, which he did, coupled with the provision of drugs, alcohol and, threats of physical violence, leaving her emotionally scarred and psychologically damaged to this day.

PROCEEDING IN ACCORDANCE WITH CPLR 214-G AND 22 NYCRR 202.72

2. This action is brought pursuant to the New York Child Victims Act 2019 Sess. Law News of N.Y. Ch. 11 (S. 2440), CPLR 214-G, and 22 CRR 202.72 to recover damages for J.C.'s severe psychological damage and emotional trauma caused by Dylan's wrongful and criminal acts.

PARTIES

3. The plaintiff, J.C., is an adult female, who currently resides in Greenwich, Connecticut.

4. While she was a minor, J.C. was a victim of one or more criminal sex acts in the State of New York, including sexual acts that would constitute a sexual offense as defined by the Child Victims Act. Since such criminal violation is the basis for this action, J.C. is entitled to the protection of Civil Rights Law 50-b and will file a motion asking this Court for permission to proceed using a pseudonym.

5. In the alternative, J.C. will seek a stipulation from the defendant agreeing to enter into a protective order which will ensure that her identity is protected from the public while allowing the defendant full access to information necessary for his defense.

6. The defendant, Dylan, is an American singer-songwriter, author and visual artist. Regarded as one of the greatest songwriters of all time, he has been a major figure in popular culture during a career spanning nearly 60 years, with his songs serving as anthems for the civil rights and anti-war movements. He has received numerous awards, including the Presidential Medal of Freedom, ten Grammy Awards, a Golden Globe Award and an Academy

Award. He has been inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, Nashville Songwriters Hall of Fame and the Songwriters Hall of Fame. The Pulitzer Prize Board in 2008 awarded him a special citation for "his profound impact on popular music and American culture, marked by lyrical compositions of extraordinary poetic power." In 2016, Dylan was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature "for having created new poetic expressions within the great American song tradition."

VENUE

7. Venue is proper because New York is the county in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to plaintiff's claim occurred.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

8. That upon information and belief, between April and May of 1965 the defendant, Dylan, maintained an apartment at the iconic Hotel Chelsea a/k/a Chelsea Hotel.

9. That in April of 1965 J.C. had just turned 12-years-of-age and was a minor.

10. That J.C. was sexually abused by the defendant, Dylan, between April and May of 1965 while she was minor.

11. That between April and May of 1965 the defendant, Dylan, exploited his status as a musician by grooming J.C. to gain her trust and to obtain control over her as part of his plan to sexually molest and abuse J.C.

12. That the defendant, Dylan, exploited his status as a musician to provide J.C. with alcohol and drugs and sexually abuse her multiple times.

13. That at certain times the sexual abuse of J.C. by the defendant, Dylan, occurred in his apartment at the Hotel Chelsea.

14. That by reason of the wrongful acts of the defendant, Dylan, as set forth above, J.C. sustained physical and psychological injuries, including but not limited to, severe emotional and psychological distress, humiliation, fright, disassociation, anger, depression, anxiety, personal turmoil and loss of faith, a severe shock to her nervous system, physical pain and mental anguish, and emotional and psychological damage, and, upon information and belief, some or all of these injuries are of a permanent and lasting nature, and J.C. has and/or will become obligated to expend sums of money for treatment.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION FOR ASSAULT

15. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "14" as if fully set forth at length herein.

16. Between April and May of 1965, the defendant, Dylan, sexually abused J.C.

17. Defendant Dylan's predatory, sexual and unlawful acts against J.C. created a reasonable apprehension in Plaintiff of immediate harmful or offensive contact to Plaintiff's person, all of which were done intentionally by him to her without her consent.

18. That as a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned assault, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer from emotional and physical injury, including, but not limited to, serious and severe mental distress, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment, as well as economic losses.

19. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has incurred medical expenses and will continue to be obligated to expend sums of money for medical care and attention in an effort to cure herself of her injuries. Upon information and belief, said injuries are of a permanent and lasting nature and have incapacitated Plaintiff from attending her regular activities.

20. As such, Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory damages from the defendant, Dylan, in such sums as a jury would find fair, just and adequate. Furthermore, because the defendant, Dylan, committed the acts alleged herein maliciously, fraudulently and oppressively with the wrongful intention of causing injuries to Plaintiff from an improper and evil motive amounting to malice and in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, Plaintiff is further entitled to punitive and exemplary damages from the defendant, Dylan, in such sums as a jury would find fair, just and adequate to deter future similar conduct.

21. That the amount of damages sought exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over this matter.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION FOR BATTERY

22. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "21" as if fully set forth at length herein.

23. Defendant Dylan's predatory, sexual and unlawful acts against Plaintiff amounted to a series of harmful and offensive contacts to Plaintiff's person, all of which were done intentionally by him to her without her consent.

24. That as a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned battery, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer from emotional and physical injury, including, but not limited to, serious and severe mental distress, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment, as well as economic losses.

25. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has incurred medical expenses and will continue to be obligated to expend sums of money for medical care and attention in an effort to cure herself of her injuries. Upon information and belief, said injuries are of a permanent and lasting nature and have incapacitated Plaintiff from attending her regular activities.

26. That as such, Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory damages from the defendant, Dylan, in such sums as a jury would find fair, just, and adequate. Moreover, because the defendant,

Dylan, committed the acts alleged herein maliciously, fraudulently and oppressively with the wrongful intention of causing injuries to Plaintiff from an improper and evil motive amounting to malice and in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, Plaintiff is further entitled to punitive and exemplary damages in such sums as a jury would find fair, just and adequate to deter future similar conduct.

27. That the amount of damages sought exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over this matter.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION FOR FALSE IMPRISONMENT

28. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "27" as if fully set forth at length herein.

29. Defendant Dylan's predatory, sexual and unlawful acts against Plaintiff, as more fully set forth above, amounted to willful detention of Plaintiff without authority of law, all of which were done intentionally by him to her without her consent.

30. That as a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned false imprisonment, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer from emotional and physical injury, including, but not limited to, serious and severe mental distress, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment, as well as economic losses.

31. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has incurred medical expenses and will continue to be obligated to expend sums of money for medical care and attention in an effort to cure herself of her injuries. Upon information and belief, said injuries are of a permanent and lasting nature and have incapacitated Plaintiff from attending her regular activities.

32. That as such, Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory damages from the defendant, Dylan, in such sums as a jury would find fair, just, and adequate. Moreover, because the defendant, Dylan, committed the acts alleged herein maliciously, fraudulently and oppressively with the wrongful intention of causing injuries to Plaintiff from an improper and evil motive amounting to malice and in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, Plaintiff is further entitled to punitive and exemplary damages in such sums as a jury would find fair, just and adequate to deter future similar conduct.

33. That the amount of damages sought exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over this matter.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION FOR INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

34. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs "1" through "33" as if fully set forth at length herein.

35. Defendant Dylan engaged in outrageous conduct towards Plaintiff with the intention to cause, or with reckless disregard for the probability of causing, Plaintiff to suffer severe emotional distress.

36. That as a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned intentional infliction of emotional distress Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer from emotional and physical injury, including, but not limited to, serious and severe mental distress, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment as well as economic losses.

37. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has incurred medical expenses and will continue to be obligated to expend sums of money for medical care and attention in an effort to cure herself of her injuries. Upon information and belief, said injuries are of a permanent and lasting nature and have incapacitated Plaintiff from attending her regular activities.

38. That as such, Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory damages from the defendant, Dylan, in such sums as a jury would find fair, just, and adequate. Moreover, because the defendant, Dylan, committed the acts alleged herein maliciously, fraudulently and oppressively with the wrongful intention of causing injuries to Plaintiff from an improper and evil motive amounting to malice and in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, Plaintiff is further entitled to punitive and exemplary damages in such sums as a jury would find fair, just and adequate to deter future similar conduct.

39. That the amount of damages sought exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over this matter.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendant in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts of this State that otherwise would have had jurisdiction in this matter, together with the costs, disbursements and expenses of the within action.
